

2nd CEPAL International Seminar on Carbon Footprint
Carbon Footprint and the Vulnerability of International Trade
Raúl Prebisch Conference Room

AGENDA

Thursday, 2 September 2010

8:45	Welcome	Alicia Bárcena, Executive Secretary, ECLAC/CEPAL Gerald Hatler, Primer Consejero, Delegación de la Unión Europea en Chile Laurent Bonneau, Jefe de la cooperación regional de la Embajada de Francia para el Cono Sur y Brasil Oswaldo Rosales, Director, ECLAC/CEPAL International Trade and Integration Division
9:15	ECLAC/CEPAL Introduction: Carbon Footprint	JoseLuis Samaniego, Director, Sustainable Development and Human Settlements Division
Regulations and Methodologies Developed in Europe
9:30	The European Union Eco-Label	Pavel Misiga, Head of Unit, Environment and Industry Directorate-General for Environment, European Commission (via video conference)
10:00	Advances in regulatory framework in France	Antonin Vergez, French Ministry of Ecology, Energy, Sustainable Development and the Sea (MEEDDM)
10:30	Coffee
11:00	PAS 2050	Sujeesh Krishnan, Head of Footprinting, CarbonTrust
11:30	ISO/CD 14.067-1 and 2 Process	Claudia Cerda, Coordinator, División de Normas, Instituto Nacional de Normalización (INN), Chile
12:00	Questions and Discussion
13:00 Lunch
Roundtable: Vision of Latin American countries
14:30	Roundtable: What does Latin America do with respect to carbon footprint? (ECLAC/CEPAL moderator: Heloisa Schneider)	Brasil: Marcio Macedo da Costa, Banco Nacional de Desenvolvimento Econômico e Social (BNDES) Chile: Guillermo Donoso, Director Nacional, Instituto de Investigaciones Agropecuarias (INIA) Colombia: Daniel Alejandro Ordoñez, Consultor, Subdirección de Desarrollo Ambiental Sostenible (SDAS), Departamento Nacional de Planeación (DNP) and Diana Carolina Barba Patiño, Climate Change Mitigation Group (CCMG), Ministry of Environment, Housing and Territorial Development México: Ninel Escobar, Subdirectora de Estadística, Econometría y Geomática, Instituto Nacional de Ecología (INE) Uruguay: Ing. Agr. Walter Oyhantcabal, Director del Grupo de Cambio Climático, Ministro de Ganadería, Agricultura y Pesca Costa Rica: Alfonso Villanueva Piva, Jefe de Gabinete del Ministro, Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores y Culto
16:00	Questions and Discussion
16:30	Coffee
Roundtable: Carbon Footprint and the International Negotiation Processes
16:45	ECLAC/CEPAL Overview	Oswaldo Rosales, Director, ECLAC/CEPAL International Trade and Integration Division
17:00	Roundtable: Carbon footprint and challenges in trade policies (ECLAC/CEPAL moderator: Sebastian Herreros)	Brazil, Chile, Colombia, México, Uruguay France, New Zealand, United States
18:30 End of Day One

2nd CEPAL International Seminar on Carbon Footprint
Carbon Footprint and the Vulnerability of International Trade
Raúl Prebisch Conference Room

AGENDA

Friday, 3 September 2010

Perspectives and Seminar Conclusions
9:00	Summary of Day One	Pascal Martínez, French Cooperation/ECLAC/CEPAL
9:15	Retail Business and Importer initiatives and Sensitivity of commerce products	Olivier Jan, Consultant, Bio Intelligence Service, France
9:45	Roundtable: Processes related to carbon footprint in other countries (ECLAC/CEPAL moderator: Heloisa Schneider)	Germany: Rasmus Priess, Project Manager, Product Carbon Footprint Project Germany and Product Carbon Footprint World Forum (via video conference) New Zealand (NZ Greenhouse Gas Footprinting Strategy): John Doyle, Senior Policy Advisor, Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry United States (U.S. Initiatives: Reducing GHG Emissions): Verena Radulovic, Program Manager, Climate Leaders, Office of Atmospheric Programs, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
11:15	Questions and Discussion
11:45	Coffee available
12:00	Roundtable: Minimize the Carbon Footprint or its impact in international trade? Public and private policies (ECLAC/CEPAL moderator: Joseluis Samaniego)	Brazil, Chile, Colombia, México, Uruguay France, New Zealand, United States
13:30 End of Seminar		